- 62 MEDELLIN. 1873. Plain edge Pattern VEINTE PESOS, struck in Gold – by A. B(arre). 32.275 grams. 17.68 specific gravity. Fonrobert refers to this in NEUGOLD, a brass – and to a similar 1872 piece in GOLD. The cataloguer knows of no other standard reference. A colleague speaks of having had in his hand in the late 1940's in Paris a specimen belonging to the grandson of the famous French designer. Could this be that piece? In any event, its rarity makes us believe that an estimate of $3000.00 is in order. PHOTO

VENEZUELA

On May 11, 1871, the Republic of the United States of Venezuela adopted the principles of the Latin Monetary Convention and established the decimal system for its coinage. The first unit was the Venezolano or Dollar which later was changed to the Five Bolivares piece. There were also the gold units and multiples, as well as the silver units and fractions.

Following are all of these pattern issues except the smallest silver half real or 1/20 Venezolano of 1873 and the plain edge silver Venezolano of 1874.

These extreme rarities are almost impossible to locate, unless one is lucky and just happens to find a single piece by chance. The estimates given are arbitrary and reflect an indication of the popularity of the size or denomination. They may well be of equal rarity.

VENEZUELA

For your information (after studying Fonrobert, Friedberg, Guttag, Sra. de Pardo, Sivoli, Stohr, Wayte Raymond, Williams and Yeoman) we can find no references to quantities struck for these pattern issues. Each indicates extreme rarity. PROBABLY ONLY A FEW OFFICIAL ISSUES WERE STRUCK. From these adopted patterns of 1873, 74 and 75, only the following regular issues were minted:

- SILVER 1/20 Ven = 1/2 R - 1874, 1876
 1/10 Ven = 1 R - 1874, 1876
 1/5 Ven = 2 R - 1874, 1876
 1/2 Ven = 5 R - 1873, 1874, 1876
 1 Ven = 10 R - 1876
- GOLD 1 Ven = 5 Bol - None
 5 Ven = 25 Bol - 1875
 10 Ven = 50 Bol - None
 20 Ven = 100 Bol - None

A closely similar type of the largest gold piece was issued in 1886, 87, 88 and 1889.
